Spring Dilly Dallying To Be Done At Fort Winthrop

Entire Cadet Corps Mourns As Brutal Murder Of Oscar Is Uncovered In Room

Famed Character All Flushed Up

The corps mourned last Saturday morning when the lifeless form of Oscar, for more than a decade the most notorious character at Clemson, was found lying in the locker in his room, with a crimson dagger pierced through his pure heart.

It was terrifying sight that greeted Oscar's old ladies as they wandered into their room about nine o'clock Saturday morning from a refreshing all-night Muscle Ball late date. There in the crimson dreariness of his own blood lay the lifeless form of their old lady.

Facts about the murder were scarce, but rumors, as usual, were in abundance. The most authentic story about the slaying charged Crammington Lawton, and Jas. could Harrison, with the crime.

The facts of the slaying are not clear. But it is reported that, after brooding in the latrine of the barn all Friday night when they learned that they were again publicized in Oscar's famous column, they barged into his room, demanded that he retract the statements, and rove the blade through his upper abdomen when he refused.

It has also leaked out that the deceased Oscar was the Hewould Vamp Sampson of a refuse student of Anderson, Germany.

At present Crammington, and Jas. could, are being held in Kunkel Karl (or the veddy corny Kobbs) Kobb's prison in the eight barracks under bail of $21,329, 14-1-4. And all is gloom in Kunkel Kobbs prison. Said the prisoner face the hot sun. De Boss will spring us. Just wait. It is rumored that Saul Nelson is the Boss.

THE PARTY
In the meantime, tensions is reaching a breaking point in barracks. The O.D.s and their KKK affiliates have threatened a necktie party for the alleged slayers, and it is sure that if this group of hoodlums does not dispose of the murderers, the law will.

Immediately following the finding the carcass of Oscar the editors of the Tiger R ag announced that his column will be continued. His son, Oscar Junior, has inherited the crown and will take over the corner in the next issue of the sheet.

LAST STATEMENT
The Oscar column which appears on this page today is the last mystery of the now deceased Oscar. It is rumored that the management of the paper found Oscar near eternity's door and, as his life ebbed out, hastily took this last column of scandal.

Oscar's last request was that his assistants should receive no leniency from his successor. Oscar Junior pledged himself to this request and has promised to keep Saul Nelson, Bo-rar Kobb, Willie Roads and others on the straight and narrow.

Funeral services for Oscar were held at twelve o'clock midnight last Saturday immediately after the last dance of Muscle Ball. Dance week-end dates, and musclemen stood stiff as the bugles of George Donnette's henchmen sounded Taps in the still of the peathick midnight.

Lever, Simmons Editors Of Key And Ag Almanac

J. J. Simmons and Mitchell Lever, cohorts, in the publication of the Tiger, "Clemson most interesting newspaper," have been chosen as editors of the Agrarian and Blue Key Director, respectively.

The boys in accepting their new positions said: "If we can put the Tiger out Every Thursday for eight years consecutively without missing an issue, we can do it these semi-centennial publications out on time."

OSCAR IS DEAD—His cold lifeless body lying stiff by his own locker, Oscar finally takes his rightful place in the corpse of cadets. Murdered by an angry assassin, it became known that Oscar was Hewould Vamp Sampson, who has been made notorious on the New York Crimes daily sheet of Sergeant Keep Rolling Melton. Sampson announced sometime before the end that one of his sons, Oscar Junior, will take over the column next week.

Padvo Carlson, Arch. '39, is draftsman with Storrett Bros. and Eken of Brooklyn, N. Y. His present work is on the plans for a 32 story addition to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company building.

Block C Ring Rises Up And Does Growling

Initiates of the Block "C" Club, after long deliberation, have decided to go on a stand-up strike in protest of and because of the various pep meetings called for the initiates in front of the Jew Shop. Said Stilson Rump, ring leader of the mob, "After due consideration for all parties concerned, we feel that it behooves us to make this move especially since it is physically impossible for us to sit down anyway." Little Rock, another of the mobsters, remarked, "Who do dem guys tink dey are. We'll show 'em who's de boss'."

The following item was taken from the Citadel Hound:
"We, the caydets of the Kidelet have agreed to bathe at least once a week from now on in cooperation with the National Cleaning week, March 7-8."

Suction Members Resign Stooges; Charge No Split

Junior members of Clemson's Central Dance Association today threatened resignation, accusing Fred Sory McAlister of cutting down on junior grafting privileges.

Willie P. McAllister, co-ship-a-man, told the Tiger that the "silly looking Scotchman had made it impossible for him to earn more than 20 or 30 dollars a week." Willie P. claimed that under the present set-up, he would be unable to persuade the Big Ten of his military efficiency.

McTavish was not at all disturbed by the rebellion. "I'm making enough this year to set myself up in business," said the dance attorney, "why should I worry. Besides, the high-priced hands which have played here this season have cost us at least one-eighth of our receipts."

Sory said that as long as he was in charge of gypping jitterbugs at Clemson, that he would limit the juniors to less than 300 dollars per year.

Chief Silly Sot. Takes ZurBurg; Arson Charge

By H. W. HOLLS
Chief "Silly" Sotill of the military police today announced the arrest of Professor F. W. Firewater ZurBurg of the chemistry school for attempted arson. In a statement to the press, Professor ZurBurg said, "I was annoyed so I attempted to burn the chemistry building early Monday morning."

Continuing, the professor said that his deed was brought about as a result of the previous night. He and Bill Lippincott, another so-called chemistry professor, were running off a charge of mountain dew, of which Bill had been imbibing quite frequently, but due to the many drafts which circulate through the old building, the burner on the still went out repeatedly. Because he could not complete his experiment, ZurBurg set the building on fire and left with Bill.

The flame was discovered early the next morning by one of the Chief's secret operatives who immediately put out the flame. Chief Sotill, with a marvelous power of deduction, connected ZurBurg with the crime by the presence of an unfinished western story manuscript that had dropped out of the professor's pocket in the rush to get out of the burning building. As it is generally known, Mr. ZurBurg is a writer of great renown. He admitted his guilt.

This morning ZurBurg said, "Nothing can come in between me and my science."

Dr. H. L. Hunter, another one of them chemistry bums, said, "Should the building have been burned, ZurBurg would have rendered a great service to the college."

The trial is set for Saturday. Chief Sotill said that Lippincott was exonerated because he was drunk.

CHANGED BAND

The band has found a new position on Bowman Field—30 feet to the left of the cadet colonel. The position they have located is 2nd battalion of the first regiment to increase its echo ability with the old textile building. The band can play one march and the echo will play another, therefore the band can rest while the echo plays.

Convertables To Take Place Of Rifles And Arms

Glamour Is To Be The Thing

Honorable Pet Dargan, sweetheart, soul inspiration colonel, etc. of the hole cowdet brigade, announced today that the annual spring maneuvers of the corps will be held on the campus of Winthrop, a well known outpost of the well known now-in-vogue feminine army units somewhere in upper South Carolina.

Ed Note—Colonel Huggathepet Graham, who plays second fiddle to Dargan, is said to have full information on how to get to the scene of maneuvers—he has been there before.

The honorable Pet, although reluctant to discuss the matter more fully, (there are a lot of things I'd rather talk about with you, she told the Tiger reporter) she intimated that a convertible, equipped with a radio will be much more desirable than a rifle and bayonette at the activities this spring. Past performance has indicated that this is true.

Said Pretty Pet in her announcement, "Because it is so much trouble, because rifles are so heavy to carry, because the Winthrop student body is getting tonsome, because, because it is spring, and because I want to see Alex, I have decreed that the annual spring maneuvers shall be held at Winthrop this year."

Continued Pet, "I have thought for years that Clemson students were not so cute carrying rifles, anyway. They will look a lot cuter carrying a bluskit on their—er—, and it should be a lot more fun. Besides Winthrop will like it better."

As the Tiger reporter read the announcement over the mess place blabber system today the cowdets roared their approval. One Cowdet, one Crawford Lawton, said, "Boy, oh boy. Just wait till I do right shoulder arms—using a Winthrop lass as the arm. Now ain't that going to be fun. That's even more fun than bustin' people."

Another Cowdet, one G. Man McMillan, said that he would prefer present arms to right shoulder arms if the blue skirts are used for the arms. "I'm a hog about the Zury Q. present arms anyway, and if the blueskirt's name is zazy it'll be just ducky."

Colonel HerMan Pool was somewhat doubtful of the workability of the plan. Said He, "What will the board of trustees say? But whatever they say," the Colonel continued, "They can't say very much. Women run the world, so why shouldn't they run the Cowdet brigade?"

Swear Signs To Make Funny Films With Colossal

By JASIN CHAPINDY, EDITOR

Professor R. E. Swear, head frog slaughterer of the biology department, has signed a contract with Super Colossal films ink. Ware will have the title role of Willie Frog in a new series of animated cartoons. Swear will suspend work on his latest book, The Love Life of the Amoeba, and will soon leave for Hollywood. It is also rumored that Swear's departure is most timely as the S. P. C. A. has sworn out a warrant for his arrest for the murder of poor innocent frogs. Jimmy Fodder, Hollywood film critic, has announced that he will grade Swear's Cinematic endeavors on the basis of plus 4.3, 1.0, -1.2 and 3. Mr. Fodder, like Mr. Swear never gives above a -2.

Hollywood make-up artists are awaiting Swear with open arms for after all, make-up is

Three Bands Signed For Great Jive

By SOCIETY MONGER MARSHALL

Come on all you jitterbugs and you lovers of the sweet bands drop in line too. The Censored Dance Association has announced its plans for a super-duper hop. There will not be just one band, but three. The new field house will be modestly decorated, the theme being nightmares. The entire field house will be illuminated with an indirect lighting system. There will be a huge revolving stage in the center of the floor, upon which the bands will play all at the same time. The bands to be present will be Men Giller, Genny Goodman, and Crob Bosby. Dancing will begin about eight o'clock, immediately after the serving of a huge seven course dinner. The dancing will last just as long as you can hold out. A block ticket will not be needed, as there will be no stop in the music whatsoever. The festivities will begin Friday at 6, and will conclude with the serving of a early Sunday morning breakfast. Harry Mc owe-everybody, president of the censored dance association, modestly issued the following statement, which had to be barely forced out of him.

"This is the best dance I have ever put on, and I think this rates me the best ODA president ever to come to Clemson. In fact, I think it rates me as an outstanding member of the student body. I did all the work, I supervised all the building, and I make all the money... that is to say I think the other boys who did a little of the work should get some of the credit too." Prices for the dance are very modest, and within the reach of every Clemson man. Just tear off the top of one Pontiac and send it to the ODA, with just seventy five dollars to defer the small printing and mailing costs.

Well, I'll see all you kids at the dance. Bring your own liquor.

Au Revoir

Perfunctorily the editors at this season of the year "let the bars down" and then occupy much valuable space apologizing for printing de truth, de whole truth, and every everything but the truth.

What's done is done, what ain't done, we'll do.

We ain't apologizing fer nuttin' . . . We're eloping to the wilds of Winthrop with Oscar's widow, hic! hic!

We Tap The Keg

This week there came to light on this campus through the columns of this Rag, things that had not ort to be.

There is a severe need for a lot of good fraternities on the campus, but the management of this sheet stop to doubt the value of the fackeltly futurity, the Tappa Kegga Beers.

It is with reverence that we assault our distinguished faculty. We admire their raised swords. Too often have we felt the sting of drawing back a nub on a required course—just because we wanted the truth to live.

But today we draw no punches. Such putrid punies as the Tappa Kegga Beers must be extinguished. The flame of such rotten, unprecedented violation of the codes of the student body must be stopped.

It is the suggestion of the management of this business that some thirsty campus leadership organization pull a raid on the jam of the aforementioned sluppers. This enterprise can give a list of the nights when the Kegga Beers will have a full supply of spirits.

So, you see, student leaders, your raid will not be without its mercenary gains—and lubrication.—Hic.

We Pause To Mourn

Oscar Is Dead.

That is the simple obituary that The Tiger chooses to pen to what has for the last decade been the most read and notorious character on this campus.

This week the filthy dagger of an enraged student found its way into the pure heart of one of the purest and most conscientious students ever to breathe the Clemson air.

For that, or those, crimson hearted scabs who tapped the life blood of Oscar this newspaper has only contempt. They were men who could not rise above personalities. The caustic remarks of dear Oscar about dark chapters of their lives proved their yellow-bellied, crimson-hearted real inter-makings. They are just scabs.

And the maker of Oscar, JOSEPH SHERMAN, we extend our deepest sympathies. We have felt the agonies of raising a brain-child to the age of greatest production, only to have his life-blood snapped with the dagger of an angry assassin. We, too, have felt the mental anguish of a proud father who was the father of a one-parent son. Such bitter anguish only a few may taste in the short span of this mortal life.

But to the millions of Oscar-readers, we say that we will carry on. Not, perhaps, with the true spirit which has marked the immaculate presentation of the scandals of Clemson for the last decade, but we SHALL carry on. The crimson stained daggers of angry assassins hold no fear for us. We must uphold our trust. Oscar must live again. The truth must survive.

Oscar will live again.

As CDAers See It

Some say that boys work their way through school on the CDA, even support a family at home. What's so strange about that.—The Tap's staff does that and more, and they don't even work. W. I. B.

What We've Hoped

Rumor is a vicious thing, and as a rule The Tiger takes no stock in them. However, the very foundations of the journalistic world were shaken by the confirmation of the rumor that the CDA has gone into bankruptcy. It seemed impossible at first but as the facts rolled in, the grim truth stared us in the face. It seems that in the past few months the CDA had been losing steadily, hardly able to make more than a few thousand above the overhead. With the signing of JACKSON BEERGARDEN and his boys for Taps, at best the CDA hopes to make but a modest three or four grand. Faced by these facts, the CDA President, HARRY MCKOWEN filed a plea of bankruptcy.

MCKOWEN's income tax returns for this year shows a modest prophet of sixteen thousand dollars. Naturally it would be asking too much of HARRY to save the old homestead with this nest egg. It seems a shame that this fine old institution should pass into oblivion. We earnestly petition the student body to part with their spare pennies to aid this fine body of men.

It Keeps Us Broke

This newspaper suggests (and who has not suggested it at some time or other) that all income tax collection for this year be curtailed. We have one predominant reason for this suggestion.

Having to pay an income tax seriously interferes with the social independence of out business manager. His Tiger income, which is not in excess of $22,601.23 for any one year is entirely inadequate after income taxes have been deducted. It is impossible for him to have his favorite girl here for the dances every weekend.

This newspaper should be very glad to withdraw its complaint should it be possible for our business manager to exceed that above mentioned income.

ROBERT L. HEMSTEAD,
Business Manager.

In The Groove

Following the groove, or rut, set by previous staffs, The Tiger this week takes down the blinds for the annual April fool issue.

A majority of our circulation will think that it is not funny. We agree. But we did have a lot of fun laughing about the things which could not be printed even in an April fool issue.

Shoot THE Show

By GUS CHAPIN, EDITOR

Friday, "Gone With The Wind"—No previews available.

Saturday, "Gone With The Wind"—A hot-shot show of the old West. Even better than last year's great drama "Who Untied My Horse". Two tip-roaring cowpunchers from 5th Avenue shoot it out to see whose to get the first sip from the jug. A herd of wild horses stamped up 42nd Street. A really great opera with a touch of horseflesh added for good measure.

Tuesday, "Gone With The Wind"—Chills will run up your spine when you see this one. A stirring story of the back alleys starring "Tough Guy" Takande and "Snake" Indegras. Five symphony orchestra are on hand and blend their harmony with the rat-tat-tat of machine guns. Cast your peepers on this one. It's rated as tops by the experts.

Tuesday, "Gone With The Wind"—You'll smell the salty air of the seas when you truck down to Holtzy's hickout to see this one. Two Join Silver type pirates are the stars. In a hundred mile wind, they battle it out for supremacy of the seas in two life-boats. It took two thousand wind machines and 50,000 gallons of water to film the picture. The critics rate it as the marvel of the film industry.

Wednesday, "Gone With The Wind"—Information is limited but there are quite a number of rumors circulating around about the high priced one.

Thursday, "Gone With The Wind"—comedy that is worth anyone's 15 cents. A doctor moves to a country village and on the first day that he hangs out his shingle he gets a call to deliver quintuplets. The father, slightly surprised, turns to his wife and says, "Personally, my dear, I don't give a damn." The cast is swell and the lingo is above the average. Rating—Good.

Fuzz Bug 3rd Best Dressed In Nation

Mr. Felix Fuzz Bug was honored this week by being named by Post the third best dressed man in America.

Said Mrs. Post on the choice, "Mr. Fuzz Bug's elegant morning costumes coupled with his natty sports attire in which he is accustomed to meet his laboratory classes made him an outstanding choice for the first place. Mr. Fuzz Bug's evening clothes did not measure up to the standard of the other leading contestants, however. In fact, his 'carnation' was definitely dragged."

Dr. Ivan Sippinscotch, of the Highlands Sippinscotchs, received the unanimous vote as best-dressed man in America. Dr. Sippinscotch's original and bizarre disguises put him well ahead of the other contestants, said Mrs. Post. Dr. Sippinscotch's habit of wearing a red shirt will probably become a national style, observed Madame Post. Mrs. Post was doubtful if Sippinscotch's habit of wearing boots to dances would become the national habit, unless both male and female adopted the

Skitt Puts Putt Referee Puts Skitt In Putty

George Skitts, star Tiger high jumper, yesterday broke all existing records for the shot putt. His time in the 100 yard dash was a score of fifteen points. Skitts was overheard later mumbling to himself something about, "The umpire gyped me, them last two guys were out at first, and besides I tackled him on the ten yard line."

The referee, in answer to Skitts protests, calmly answered, "Skitts is crazy, I had to take those men out of the game because of personal fouls, and then too, both of his serves were out by a mile. The next time I catch that Skitts hitting his opponent with his golf club I'm going to penalize him ten yards. The referee went on to say more, but about that time the ambulance rode up and carried Skitts and the umpire off to the insane asylum.

As the ambulance drove off, we wondered why it was driving backwards and why it had a Nazi flag flying at half mast, but before we could find out, we had arrived at the asylum, and were comfortably lodged in the royal suite with the most gorgeous plush paddings around its walls.

HERE, BOYS AND GIRLS are a few representative students taken from our colorful student body and put on their pedestals by our staff artist, Artist Hezekial Blotto Penapup.

Reading from left to right, which direction is the customary manner to read photographs, we find, stacked over in the aforementioned left corner the one and only Jee Belish Jones. Although we tacitly told Artist Blotto to make a Tolkey out of our Jones, we are reluctant to pass this sketch on to our critical readers as such (Turkey). We rather fancy that those who know Belish will use their imaginations. Those who don't wouldn't get the point, anyway. That's that.

Moving over one notch we find that snake of the diamond-snakes Wotta Inspiration Bourbon. Whatta Man! Now here Artist Blotto has really hit the groove. Mr. Bourbon hasn't forgotten anything. Note the pipe, which was made so very famous in the Oscar column of this rag a few months. We also note (you do, please) that artist Blotto has provided the grass. Now we ask you would a snake be at home without grass—or the CDA dance, and a lot of lovely-lovellies to snake with? Note, also, the diamonds and rattles (on tip of carcass) we like the diamonds. We think that Whotta Inspiration does, too.

The next inspirational outfit of artist Blotto is that man (or mouse) Next Inspirations Blawton. Here, artist Blotto, has missed his Cue. Editor-of-this-issue Chapin explicitly told Blotto to make a rat—which would have been order. And what does he do but make it necessary for us to apologize to Mr. Disney for imitation. Not that we think that Artist Blotto is incompetent, but we personally looked around for minutes and did not find any cheese. Proverbs link mice with cheese. Balwton has had the cheese for months, so we don't see why he could not have the cheese here too.

The next Glamorous caricature uplift to appear is that of Rosy Blowmup Softshall. Now here, again, Artist Blotto is in the groove. First we ask you to note some of the finer points of this portrait. Note (1) the apple. Now what could be the significance of that. It could not be for the teacher, or something. But we have always connected worms with apples, so Artist Blotto must be a genius. Note, (2) the slight projection along the lower side of the carcass. Frankly these puzzled Editor Chapin. But a hasty conference with Artist Blotto, and he assured the editor that they were the sole means of locomotion of the aforementioned personage.

Wandering back to that conventional starting place (look to the extreme left, please, bottom) we find another one. The Tiger in person. We are not sure who the mugg belongs to, but Artist Blotto says that it is former Boss Tiger Boirl Blazo. On this job the editor has no comment. Note, however, the lace collar. That, we understand is the latest thing in full dress Tiger attire. Note, too, the toe-nails. We are not inclined to be suggestive, but they seem sharp, long, and dangerous. This fellow will bear watching.

Next, (move one notch in the afore-mentioned direction, please) is that inimitable Stamping grounds character, Kunnell Kutie Willie Kolbovitzkie. Maybe Artist Blotto is slipping. We wouldn't know, but editor Chapin couldn't see eye to eye with Artist Blotto when it came to placing the head on that specimen. Says the editor, "It ain't in keeping with the expression of the rats on my company. It ain't expressive." And those things protruding from just above the nap of the neck—on the side of the molars—now we thought that they were large flower leaves—called elephant ears—which were placed there as decoration. But Artist Blotto says no. They are a part of the painting. "Them," he says, with a sense of the pride of his profession. "Is the ears." What ears. Whatta Man. Moving on back on the carcass, we find a true mark of Artist Blotto's genius. The diamonds. Now that's the berries. Artist Blotto never forgets the tin. Corny, but that is the diamonds. Note (moving to the right along the frame and moving slightly higher) is the final touch of Artist Blottos work. We thought that this was the whip. But, again, Artist Blotto says no. That is the tail. Maybe it is. After all, Artist Blotto is a genius. We (Editor or Chapin and Sub Editor or Derrick) just write the remarks.

Moving along (go again in the conventional direction—nothing rude and unconventional) we find the last of a series of the marks and sketches of an Artist (Blotto, by name). Now this is the peak. Her Royal Beauty Sister none other than) we all know her, Winsome Apple (of our hearts) Blowus. Now we don't know what Winsome is doing on this page. We were thinking that this was a man's sheet. A man's paradise. But she's here and glamorous, too. Editor Chapin had not noticed the curves until he saw this sketch, but he catches on and takes notice fast. He even beat Hempstead to the note. Apple is here, our second and only second co-ed though, so better get an early start if you are to rate.

Snubbin Collards Creates Sensation In Chemical Realm

Dr. D. Wacky Dandelion president of The Royal Clemson-Calhoun Academy of Arts and Sciences announced today that Dr. Snubbin H. Collards, widely known to the scientific world as Snub or Snood, had the world with an entirely new theory of collards.

Dr. Collards, who is one of the most popular and well-liked members of the faculty of the school of chemistry and geology, presented this paper at a recent meeting of the society, whose membership is strictly limited to those men who are outstanding in the fields of arts and science.

When interviewed, Dr. Collards grunted, "Aw shucks, I was only doing my duty. Some folks has got the idea that collards is really overgrown molecules." Then he shouted, "But they ain't! They are really microbes which keep moving around because they don't like the place they're at." Dr. Collards did not say whether they were only trying to dipk as far as possible from him or not.

Between statements Dr. Collards repeatedly bellowed, "Hell Hitler!" and "Peace, its wonderful!" Dr. Collards, who recently appointed himself head of the German-American Bund, is also a charter member of one of Father Divine's Heavens.

Although best known for his many theories in chemistry, Dr. Collards is also a practical man. Among his many worthwhile discoveries is patent #375 (a handy little ash catching gadget which is nothing more than a fire proof coat and vest. Said the doctor, "It's the nearest trick I've turned out yet."

Among the members attending the meeting of the Academy were such notables as Dr. Ivan W. Sippin, who practices black magic as a hobby; B. Eddie Inferno, inventor of the hot foot which bears his name; Mr. Alpha Tau Credle, inventor of the electric eel; S. B. (Sonny Boy) Oile, a great Furman promoter; and J. Huffington Huff, the physicist who taught Einstein what he knows today.

Over The Rhyne & Dough Hunter Grab Currency

Desparados "Little Dough" Hunter and "Big Dough" Wayne held up and robbed the Seward National Bank of Greenville of approximately $275 and escaped last night. When last seen they were riding on a mule toward the backwoods. The unusually large amount of cash in the bank was available due to Clemson's state expense allotment for the coming year.

The criminals opened the bank vault with a mathematical formula which they left behind in the rush to escape.

It is thought that the desperados have gone to a cabin in the backwoods and cannot be reached without the aid of Indian guide "Wahoo" Abee, who is nowhere to be found. Local officers still and Moore have been unable to locate the criminals to date.

Jennet, Hamarr Attend Parish House Social

By WALTER CHIZZEL CHOPIN, EDITOR

Rev. D. E. Veal, Episcopal rector, announced today the expected arrival of screen actresses Boan Jennet and Lady Hamarr who will attend next week's dance at the Parish House.

These famous stars who will come here from Folley Beach have accepted Rev. Veal's invitation for altogether friendly and personal reasons. There is no commercial aspect to their appearance whatsoever.

They will arrive on the campus Friday, April 5 at 6:45 a. m. and leave in one of the available Taps limousines at 5:59 a. m. Saturday. They will be available as dance partners for all cadets attending the dance.

Miss Bennett claims to be a very good "fitterbug." Lamm likes waltzes best. They will make no public appearances while at Clemson but will limit the cadets to this one opportunity to not only see but to mingle with two famed personages. The Parish House is being enlarged especially to accommodate the expected large crowd. Clemson's own army officers will form a special guard of honor for the ladies as they motor from Calhoun Station on to the campus. Rev. Veal promises a spelling bee with a prize at the intermission as a special inducement for all the casanovas to attend.

Band JunkJive Corp Junks Band

No longer will the walls of the field house vibrate with the taunting rhythms of jive. The Junglers have junked swing. The following statement issued by leader Teebee Hawkins explains this drastic measure.

"All our lives we have wanted to be patrons of the classics, but public prejudice stood in our way. Instead of ripping up and down the scale with solid jive, we wished to dispense with this type of rowdyism, and romp about the scales al-legro con fuoco and to hold hands with the aesthetic. We are unable to stand it any longer, so we are through with swing. As leader of the band, I shall replace my saxophone with a baton. We expect to give our first concert in the very near future."

The following members of the band will make a change in their instruments and style. "Lover Walker will let his hair grow and continue tickling the ivories. It is believed that Walker has acquired the Paddyrusky yowling which he claims to be from the Schnabell school. The sax section will be replaced with oboes and bassoons. Trombones and trumpets will remain intact, but Big Job Turner will take up a bow for his dog house.

In the event of a concert, admission will be free and tomatoes and over ripe fruit will be given out at the door.

Dr. Bill Wise Takes Post Here; Post Drops Dead

Dr. Bill R. Wise, A. A. B. M. E. LL. D. and a former graduate of Clemson was recently made assistant professor of the electrical engineering department. Dr. Wise will fill the vacancy of Professor A. B. Credle, who is working on his LL. D. at Erskine.

Dr. Wise was an honor member of his class at Clemson. He has been employed with the Keowee Electric Company, Keowee, S. C. for the past five years where he has made many experiments on "hot wires" and their insulation.

Marx Chosen College Head

Harpo Marx, prominent Cinema comedian, has been chosen as the new College president by the board of trustees. After careful consideration and deliberation this choice was made known to the public.

Dr. E. W. Sights, who Marx will succeed, said that Harpo will be the perfect president. He will keep his mouth shut because he can't talk, and he will keep the core amused with his tricks and harp playing. "Yes indeed," said Sights, "The trustees need not fear, he will be the perfect president."

Splashers Leave For Europe To Splash Around

Mr. P. B. Holdsemoff, coach of the swimming team and one of the campus goody-goody boys, announced the other day that the swimming team would go on exhibition tour of Europe, ending the trip by swimming the English Channel "en masse."

Said Ben McKnight, captain of the group, "Our only worry is keeping out of the way of stray German submarines or mines, but I don't think they'll bother us very much. We're pretty tough, you know." Everette Martin, another of the splash boys said, "Eleanor Holm swam it, so why can't we? After all, what's she got that we haven't." At this point your correspondent wished to add, "Plenty," but didn't and left the mermaids to their dreams of sharks and barracudas.

Wise Gets Loot Cobb Gets Wise

Bill Wise, EE senior of four score and twenty years, reputed to have been "born and bred" in the engine house, was charged this week, by one Karloff Cobb, (of the 8th barracks Cobbs) to have premeditatedly and deliberately, looted his chocolate milk and candy emporium during the last parade, in the absence of said Karloff.

Karloff said: "I know he's guilty, cause my stooge, MacMahon seen him when he done it." The "Kernal" (you know—Cobb), said that he had considered hiring "Dick Tracy" Mac and his half sops of "super sleuths" to track down the criminal, but said, quote, "Wuzn't no use, that boy Mac is just a little bit of stuff." Wise's only statement was, "Boys, crime don't pay." Cobb—"It don't."

Hammond Takes Prexy Of A. S. S.

L. G. Hammond, bobbin-dodger deluxe from Chittlinswitch, was unanimously elected prexy of the national honorary leadership frat, Alpha Sigma Sigma. P. C. Cothran, sanitary engineer from another hole in the road, and Cutie Kolb, another Georgian, were elected vice prexy and sec. respectively at the meeting held last night in room 1927, (first door on the right) Barn.

Bunny, as he is called by his friends (both of them) is an outstanding member of the Senior class and very active in several campus, including the Pals of Bunny Hammond, or Supply Sergeant Who Didn't Bate," and the "Greenwood Briarhoppers." Modest in his ways, Bunny recently declined a bid to Phi Psi, because, he exclaimed, "My grades are too low."

Cothran, who served one year of a four year stretch in Alcatraz on the Ashley and finally managed to escape, is wanted in several states, but because of his splendid record and popularity among the students, he has made quite a name for himself here at Clemson (sorry we can't print it). Cothran, in conjunction with Arthur Williams, paid for his first two years by calling out mail from the top floor of the main building. He lost this scholarship after a sack of mail and a bunch of postoffice keys were found in his room.

Cutie Kolb, recently voted the most popular cadet in the first region (one vote east-MacMahon's hails from somewhere in Georgia—it don't matter where. Kolb's Horatio Alger success story is nothing less than phenomenal. "P driver" to "Kernal," "Kernal" to secretary of the Alpha Sigma Sigma. When looking for Cutie, to inform him of the election, in the Tiger reporter found him in the big tree on Bowman's field, looking for a spur that flew off at retreat yesterday.

When told of his election, he excitedly exclaimed; "Oh, Goody." "My mother told me I'd amount to something someday." We bet she didn't say what.

Gates Tosses Hat In Ring; Masses Cheer

Dr. James E. "Charlie Chase" Gates, professor of "Gates Government" and affectionately known as "Pearly" because of his many morals, this week "threw his hat into the Senatorial ring."

Gates said that his plans were in the hands of Captain "Nut Boy" Okuroski and "Agitator" VonWeller, newly appointed managers who are members of his class in State government.

"As soon as I am elected," said the doctor, "I shall introduce a bill providing for strawberry shortcake at least twice a week for my darling cadets, and free bus tickets to Winthrop, including one for myself."

At a late press conference, Dr. Gates requested the cooperation of the cadet corps in his latest government experiment. "You may rest assured there will be radical changes," the venerable doctor said.

Famous Man Passes Out; Is Baffled

Colonel "Get-me-smell-your-breath" Littlejohn passed out in the Commandant's office last week. It was officially announced that intoxication was the direct cause. Littlejohn pleaded not guilty and was sentenced to 3 months room arrest.

When quizzed by reporters Littlejohn issued the following statement. "It is all absurd. I never drink. I still cannot understand it. The last thing I knew I got a whiff of my own breath and detected the odor of spirits. I was so surprised I guess I fainted. Anyone will tell you I never drink. Any Sunday you can attend my temperance lectures. It is all absurd... Hic..."

Fackulty Feud Fizzles Along Veddy Merrily

The feud between professor D. M. Curly and "Yank" Choochooski has developed into a fight to the finish.

The fight originally started over the hand of one Louise Pritchard, second in command, Mrs. Graham's Temple of Knowledge (the library). The boys used to go down right after long roll, then try to see which could outlast the other. They quit this after Louise slipped out one night, and locked the door. The boys spent a lonely night with no company except a bust of Thomas G. Clemson, and one of Holtz's stray cats.

When interviewed yesterday, Curly said; "I don't mind fair competition, but when I give the guy a cut in math, then have to race him to the library—well, that's going to war. Hic."

"Choo" said; "I seen her foist, and I'm gonta' gitta, Coily or no Coily, Hic."

Louise says; "Hit don't differ, there's plenty more where they come from."

Style Flash From The Pencil Pusher

A distinct but somewhat unusual honor came to Clemson, when it was announced recently that Mr. R. M. Geer was chosen by the leading clothes designers in the country to be the best-dressed man in America for the past year.

Accessories are certainly not missing from Mr. Geer's dress, as a heavy chain of keys always hangs naturally from his pockets. But the long stemmed pipe that sticks so unconcernedly out of his mouth adds that sophisticated and cultured touch so necessary in a well-dressed man.

I Felta Thy Tap New Members; To Have Field Day

I Felta thi, national honor geographical society, this week tapped too nue prominent members of the Clemson faculty. The men chosen were "Lover" Walker, and "Pretty Boy" Taylor. Winsome Willie Lippincott, president of the Clemson chapter was enthused over the choice. Said Willie, "Chee, dis churse is de nuts. Dem is jest de tripe of men we was lookin fur. I am sure dey will be a credick too de maturity."

The elta Thi's are planning to have a picnic in the near future. They expect to travel to Greenville Women's College, to explore some of natures finest formations.

Clemson Musickers Hear Concert By Okie Dokie

The Corn-egle Music Society this week presented its initial concert for the cadet corps in the basement of the dairy building. A lovely program under the direction of Johann Okuroski Beethoven was arranged including several corn-certos by Clemson composers.

Judson Chopin, of the composers Chopin, sang an arid depicting life at Clemson entitled "Agriculture, Horticulture, Sah, Cow, Sah."

Then CDA Southerlin sang with spirit "The Prisoner's Song". (Note -he sent a telegram last week.)

A. C. Littlejohn sang "I'm in the Army Now."

During intermission in an appreciation of fine music talk, Johann Okuroski Beethoven said, "Youse guys knows why we is here. To get as much of de cultural things of life. In de woids of de poet 'music is sublime' I would like to say dis; dat in all my days at Clemson, dere's nothing I've enjoyed more dan my activities in de Corn-egle Music Society. It overcomes me."

After intermission "Corn Cob" Elphick played "I'm a G. O. P. from New Jersey."

In conclusion an intermetizo by the composer, "Billy Boy" Quantz, "I Base My Hopes on Solid Rock (Rentz)" was presented.

As an added attraction in order to have an audience ice cream was served.

General Purge Of Lintery Is Ordered By Deans And Dukes

At a meeting of the deans today, it was announced that Professor Huckshucks of the textile school would be asked to resign because of his wasteful use of his student's time.

Dean Swillis of the textile school said, "Numerous students have been objecting to the way in which Huckshucks has been handling his classes. The main objections, it seems, is that he lectures entirely too slow and that he has been letting his classes out approximately 15 minutes before the first bell. There also have been complaints because of the numerous cuts he has given his classes."

Professor "Change Method" Crowtoes spoke in behalf of Dr. Huckshucks and urged the deans to reconsider the evidence in the case before taking such a drastic course. Prof. Crowtoes said, "Gentlemen! Can't you change your method and give Huckshucks another chance. If you can't hook up the horse, you can't plow. The victim is just learning to hook up the horse. After he learns, he won't be given zores, thrown out of classes, and marked absent by his students."

Professor Crowtoes final plea was to no avail and from the way things are looking now, Dr. Huckshucks is bound to be dismissed. Said the victim of the student purge, "I have nothing to say. I have made no plans for the future. I may retire next year on my old age pension."

Crowfoot Talks Raves As Usual About Himself

Professor "Crowfoot" Torrent, would be texture professor, spoke on "A Cort Shut To Success" at a meeting of Phizzle Psizzle, national linthead club, in commemoration of the club's first birthday. The affair was held in the grand basement of the Texture building.

Said "Crowfoot," "Look at me, boys. I done it; so can you. Why, when I was your age I was also dumb, but by sheer will power and a diet of goat's milk I developed in to a man mountain of mental energy. It was I that started Pienstien on his theory of helativity. I was responsible for the erection of this wonderful building in which we now set. I invented the machine known as Jackass. There aint no gitting around it, it can be done if you determine."

Pet Graham, mascot of the club, presided.

Pinch Penny Buys Torpedo; Staff Wonders How, Etc.

Pinch-penny Hempstead, Tiger business manager, today completed arrangements for the purchase of 1940 Buick Torpedo.

Hempstead said that under no conditions would the car be used for Tiger work. "Although the auto was paid for with Tiger funds," Pinch-penny said, "it will not show on our records. I have been very severe with Stooze Lever and his staff and have saved enough to add a substantial amount to my bank account."

The Hempstead car was the second purchased on the campus this semester. Prexy McHound of the CDA has also grafted enough to buy a car.

McHound said in a statement to the Tiger this week that the junior members would have to be content with less than three hundred dollars each because of the "high-priced dance bands which have played at Clemson this year."

Bengal Ski Club To Fight Wars

Colonel Herbert M. Pool, Commandant announced today that the entire Cowdet Army Brigade will be ski-ized within the next two weeks.

Colonel Pool said that recent development in the pursuit of the war of Poland against the red masses is responsible for his decision. Other factors were not discussed, but it was understood that several members of the student body (not army men) had petitioned the athletic department for a course in skiing, and Colonel Pool came to the aid of the colleg by offering to build our army along the most modern and enjoyable standards.

It is not known yet who will be colonel of the Clemson ski unit. Willie Lippincott, sometimes a member of the rat class, has been mentioned for the job. So has "Pet" Graham also ben mentioned, but he is not a skier.

Regardless of who is chosen Boss Colonel of the outfit, however, it is understood that the unit, garbed white, which color is invogue in army skiing units, will charge on the Citadel (a war out post somewhere in Charleston) on the occasion of the next snow, sleet or hell storm.

The unit will hold spring maneuvers, in convertables, Tiger staff cars, etc, at an outpost somewhere in Rock Hill. Important military observers say that the name of this outpost is Winthrop, and hat the occupants are one of the feminine brigades now in vogue with ROTC men everywhere. I Hugga Few Graham will join the unit for the Rock Hill Pilgrimage.

S. J. Patterson, '39, is now connected with the Ciba Company with headquarters in Charlotte.

DIS AND DAT FRUM HERE AND DERE

Kue Bley, national fraternity has announced its intention of buying Coach Frank (I don't chew in front of my wife) Howard, George M'Swillin, president of the organization, said that Kue Bley was petitioned by Willie, janitor in the old textile building, who said he was tired of cleaning up after Howard.

Coach Goat M'Dill says he will vacation next year in the Rocky Mountains with the rest of the mountain goats. It is rumored that June (they call me nigger) Leved will accompany him.

Coach Job Dones, mentor of the golf team, will construct a new golf course of Bowman field. When asked whether he approved or not, Big Shot Alex Greyhound said, "Certainly, it'll do us good to have the traps and roughs to play soldier in, and besides, it'll be lots of fun watching the corps trying to march up the hill at retreat.

DORA MY DORA

Miss Dora Mae (sometimes known as George) Fritts will hold classes in crocheting every evening from six to eight in the football. Miss Fritts, in her talk to the football company, explained, "It's so simple. You just come in, go out, drop one, perl two, and there, you have a nice new bed spread." Porky Tamer, Hill Ball, Spanky Deets, and others have expressed their willingness to enter such a class.

Bunks M'Fotten and Spanky Deets, the long and short of it on the football company, have gone out for the high hurdles in track. M'Fotten is expected to step over the bar while Deets will run under the bar. Both speedsters should do well, each in his own way.

Red Harpe, captain of the football team, has resigned from practice and will never again don a football uniform as a Clemson. Said Harpe as the reason for his resignation, "I worked hard practicing all day and then had to attend a lecture till midnight every night and then I didn't get but ten dollars a day and expenses. It just wasn't paying.

HIGHLIGHTS IN THIS WEEK'S PEEL OF SPORTS

Bunk MiteFatten, Clempson's All-American pig peddler, has given up his athletic standing to become the world's foremost model. He is now posing for Walt Dizzy's new cartoon, "The goal is where you find it."

Last week George Triss received his presidents badge issued to him at the last meeting of the "Pooch Club." He's the world's loudest "barker."

Coach Frank Hewwood retired from his position as head coach at Clempson this week because of lack of work. He expressed a desire for something more strenuous, such as sitting on the mossy bank of a stream, reeling in a mess of those oh-so-luscious trout.

PORKY

Ray "Porky" Homer has leased a homey little house-on-wheels for week-end trips through the wilds down behind the Public Utilities building.

Coach Bob Jones is going out for the 1941 rifle team. He actually shot a score of 1 out of a possible 50 the other day.

Freddie Kirchner thinks he has invented a new sport which will sweep the country. It is called Kro-kay and the object of this game is to promote a better spirit for intramural fans.

Shad Brant was installed into the I Tappa Keg fraternity Monday.

A Recommendation

Office of the Commandant, Clemson College, Clemson, S. C.
Cadet reported: "Chippy" Maness
Reporting officer: Coach Frank Howard

Local Star Glows Now All Know About Our Bunks

Bunks McCrabben, lie of ping-pong fame, was yesterday elected to the all-county ping-pong team. This is the first time a Clemson athlete has ever even made a team other than the school team. All school authorities are sure that this honor to the great player will help put Clemson on the map. Dr. Bikes, president, said, "Heretofore, our great school of 121 1-2 students has been comparatively unknown, but now that Bunks has been named on the all-county team, I'm positive that the whole county will now hear about Clemson, and maybe our enrollment will jump to the enormous figure of 12.

Some Hunt Eggs Others Dates Seabrook Wins

By CHOLLY CHAPIN, Editor

The Clemson cadet corps enjoyed a lovely Easter egg hunt on Bowman Field last Sunday afternoon. The hiding of the eggs was in charge of Dr. Sikes and Colonel Poole, the co-hosts. Colonel Poole was attired in a lovely khaki uniform with a new Easter bonnet. Dr. Sikes wore a charming, grey tweed and a bright red bonnet. P. D. Seabrook found the most eggs and was therefore awarded the first prize, a big red ball. This was a very appropriate prize because P. D. has been wanting one all this year.

All the cadets enjoyed this hunt so much, it will be an annual event in the future.

Goofy Golfers Take Champs In Simple Stride

Clemson golfers, Fuller Davis and John Christopher, made headlines for themselves when they defeated Gene Sarazen and Bobby Jones in a practice game on the Tiger course here yesterday.

Jones and Sarazen were touring the Southern States assisting college golfers by giving them inside information on professional playing. On their arrival at Clemson, they found the two stars on the golf course practicing a few difficult shots.

After introducing themselves, they jokingly offered to play the boys and they accepted. The match ended with the Tiger lads in the lead 2 and 1. The only bad break that the professional team had was they accidentally dropped the ball into a eight-foot water, that is near hole 4, and could not finish the match.

Editor's Special Poem Korner

I AM THROUGH WITH WOMEN

Women are the curse of man
They do you dirt when 'ere they can
They twist your heart until you cry
And will haunt you 'till the day you die.

They talk an awful lot and cry,
It seems the tears they never dry
I'm through with women let me say
They'll not get me another day.

Oh yes, I'm off the dames for life,
Let some other guy take her for a wife,
I'm through, washed up. There ain't no more,
Say, who's that blonde who just came in the door.

Trackers Step On Some Heels No-Man Pleased

By SCOOP DERRICK

Coach "Stone" No-man was well pleased today when his tracksters ran over each other in an effort to see which one could run the highest or jump the quickest. It is thought by observers that the reason for this unusual burst of enthusiasm was caused by either the Muscle Brawl or Sprung Fever. Dr. Milford said that it had to be the first, as Spring Fever always shortened the wind and left a blue spot on the infected parts, but it cannot be the first as a brawl like that one would cause anyone to become infected and fevered, even the best of athletes can not stand too much heat and pressure.

Tappa Kega Beer Taps A Few Sots

Tappa Kega Beer, national guzzlers society, announced this week that they had chosen three members of the student body as candidates for membership. "Shipper" Marshall, Manny "The Slop" Lawton, and "Beer Barrel" Eaton were the well known men chosen. "Bo-rat" Kolb, the exulted guzzler, said with enthusiasm: "Hic... Wesh hope to polish off at least shix barrelsh by spring holidays, for an all time high... Hic."

I SAY BUTCH—Two Butches pose for our on-the-spot photographer just before squaring off for a bit of woo. We don't know their names but their faces look simple.

Swimming Pool And Golf Courses To Be Built With Surplus Funds

The recreational facilities at Clemson college have, for a long time, been inadequate for the growing student body. It has been the desire of the college for some time to enlarge these facilities, but due to financial conditions this step was impossible.

Now that the college is well on its feet, and has accumulated quite a surplus of ready funds, some $726, it is rumored that a program to this effect is now in progress. The first project is an outdoor swimming pool with the Seneca river as its water supply. The pool will be large enough to introduce mass water sports between the Regiments. In connection with the swimming pool there will be a wading pool for the less active students.

Plans are now under way for the installation of a croquet course on Bowman field. This would be very beneficial to the corps because of the splendid exercise derived from the game. This would tend to keep that sweet sixteen figure among the cadets.

For evening amusement there will be a casino placed in the Main Bldg. where the President's office is now located. The funds from this enterprise will be used in the upkeep of the other projects. It is believed that the time is not far hence when the Clemson student will not have to depend on his studies to fill his spare time. In time to come it is probable that studies may be discontinued altogether.

Tigers To Dine With Rats After Wind Contest

It was learned from Coach Frank (Brown Mule's my favorite) Howard that it was decided at the last season's Clemson-Furman annual Thanksgiving classic that in future games the losing team will be host to the winners at a steak supper at the Poinsett Hotel immediately after the game.

Coach Howard added that all necessary precautions would be taken, which included the concentration of the entire police force at or near the hotel and the evacuation of all other inhabitants of the hotel who entertain the idea of self-preservation. Funny enough, the motivating interests behind this "friendly gesture" seems to be made up of representatives from three hospitals, five mortuaries, and a considerable number of insurance agents who anticipate a heavy pre-supper boom of sales.

Ringster Scotch Takes ARide; He Won't Come Back

By J. E. HOOVER CHAPIN, EDITOR

The entire student body was shocked, but not surprised, at the recent arrest and jailing of Harry "Scotch" McKewen, prominent senior and president of the CDA on charges of failure to pay income tax on the organization's intake of the year. "Scotch" is being held in the federal jail at Washington pending investigation into the records of the organization where the federal agents expect to uncover the underlying cause for the nation's present financial status.

Hammer To Rain Over Tete Tete

Porky Hammer, prospective Lieutenant colonel, has been selected to reign over the entire corps at a May Day festival, which will be held here during the middle of April. It was only after much study and days of selection that Hammer was given this coveted role.

Terrific Bout Set For GYM

On the night of April 1, a big 15 round boxing match is scheduled to take place in the Clemson field house between Jim "I'm a Killer" Kelly and Nyle "He can't lick me" Jackson. This bout is tuned up to be one of the biggest sport events of the present school term, and a good crowd is expected to turn out. This clash has been long awaited by the "grudge fight" boys of the Architect department and the winner in this match will be ceeded a berth on the college varsity boxing team.

"Riflemen Will Move On Roosia," Says Corp. Sims

In a recent statement to a Tiger special correspondent, Corporal Sims, army officer in charge of the rifle team, announced that the sharpshooters would volunteer their aid to Finland. Said Corporal Sims, "The Finns' worries are no more. We'll slay them Roosians, Charlie Crumbley, coach of the team, added, "It doesn't matter that the war is over. We'll start the fighting off again. After all, we haven't won a match this year and it doesn't matter whether we get back or not.

Tigger Skippers Skip The Waves; Ex-Lax Repeater

By SKIPPER CHAPIN, EDITOR

The Clemson sailing trio this week defeated the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in the six meter class on Long Island sound. Clemsons's entry, "Exlax" rightfully won her name for she passed everything. With the skillful hand of of "Foghorn" Fitzpatrick on the Tiller, the old "Exlax" crossed the line of a good seven minutes before the tech entry, "Blew Nose." The course was a tough one, and the boys ran into a little trouble on the leeward leg. Although they deny it it is rumored that a good four of the seven minutes were picked up through the use of an outboard motor which had been shanghaied.

On the windward leg, the boys broke out the parachute spinaker, which immediately became fouled on the halyard. "Rock Salt" Calhoun, who was tending the mainsail and jib, had to shinny up the mast to loose the halyard. On rounding the third buoy "Rock Salt" did not hear the skipper's cry of "Jibboom" and was knocked overboard by the swining boom.

Also included in the crew was Willie McAjster assistant blige boy.

The crews next race will be with the University of Southern California at Clearwater, Alestraz.

Beagle Ballers Go To Tourney On Past Glory

Clemson's great baseball nine, coached, captained, and just generally run by Candy Handsome, a fugitive from the great big league scandal of '32, extended their winning streak to 154 straight games by virtue of yesterday's victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

The victory over the Redlegs completed an undefeated, untied season for the baseballers and gave them the National League championship and the right to play the New York Yankees in the World Series. After such a complete run-away of the National League race, odds on the Tigers over the Yankees have jumped to 134 1-2 to 3-4.

This was the first season in the big leagues for the Clemson players, they having been elected to fill the vacancy left by the shifting of the Giants to a minor league circuit, and is the first example in history of a college amateur team defeating seasoned veterans of several seasons.

When asked what he thought of the prospects for winning the series, coach Handsome answered, "Boy have I got a good looking girl."

When approached regarding the one player most responsible for the Clemson nine's overwhelming sweep of the season's play, he modestly replied, "I was, of course, no one else even came close to being as good as I was. I'll bet I bat 1.000 in the series.

(Editor's Note: Coach Handsome was chased out of the major leagues in 1932 for stealing bases. He became so bold and expert at pilfering the pillows that he stole 53 before the true ant officers caught up with him).

Rock Hits Bill; Rock Gets Broke

A Few Starred A Few Did Not

By "Scoop" Derrick

One of the most breath-taking games ever witnessed was seen by 60,000 spectators in the modern Clemson College Stadium here yesterday afternoon when the Clemson White Collars, pushed by "Hopple" Cranford and Captain Littlejohn, defeated the old Tiger team by the score of 34-6???

The White Collars never weakened after Bozard blocked a punt in the early part of the first quarter. Cranford and Littlejohn played such an outstanding defensive game until it looked as though it were entirely offensive.

For the five minutes of the game there were "tit" for "tat", but Bozard, the 240 lb. giant, broke through center and blocked a punt that enabled Wilson to ease off a pass to that high-stepping Hammond, who easily stepped over the double space for the initial score of the game. With this lead the White Collars went to work and Cranford intercepted a pass intended for McFadden and outran the entire Tiger team for the second tally.

The Tiger team made their lone score in the first few minutes of the last half when Hamer rushed Wilson, who was attempting to pass to Caughman, and caused the "pigskin" to fall in the hands of none-other than "Bonnie" Banks. McFadden who ran under perfect interference for the score.

The outstanding play of the game was made by "Blackdog" McLeod and Captain Littlejohn. McLeod broke through center for a twelve yard dash and as he hit the brick wall of Timmons and Bryant he lateraled the ball to Littlejohn who sidestepped the two remaining men to make another tally. Coach "Frog" Ware was proud of the way his society team destroyed the Tiger line. The final touchdown was a series of line plunges by McLeod and Cranford.

The lineups:
White Collars
Caughman RE
Littlejohn RG
Mazo RT
Bozard C
Wade LT
Dixon LG
Hammond LE
Manning QB
McLeod HB
Wilson HB
Cranford FB
Substitutes: Lee for Hammond (White Collar); Payne for Bryant (Tigers) Referees: Sikes, Poole and Milford.

Girly Shows Be eatuFred In Show On Holzy Stage

The cornerstone for the new amphitheater was laid last week. This lovely new structure, a gift of the class of '15, will be dedicated to the enjoyment and entertainment of the entire corps. F. B. Holzenduff will have charge of presenting programs every Saturday night. Said Mr. Holzenduff,

"We are planning to have burlesk shows every week and amateur night every third week. Some of the best and wildest girly shows have been signed up for the purpose of relieving the students minds from the burly burly and the strain of study."

The faculty is also planning to present various shows. The English department will present that great epic of literature "Panties Inferno." The chemistry department will next present "Tease for Two", to be followed by "Mind Over Mattress".

Keeping Tab On Our Graduates With The Editor

Number 4356221, Class of '22, is taking a postgraduate course at Levenworth. He will be in the class of 1978. When asked by the TIGER reporter if 4356221 were his real name, he replied, "Naw, dat's me pen name."

T. Doolittle, class of '39, is now in the hospital. Doolittle, an executive of the W. P. A. since his graduation, is suing the Government for compensation. He fell off his shovel.

Ticker Tape, Class of '34, is now holder of a seat on the stock market. When asked by the reporter what is good in the way of stocks, he replied, "Hold American Key Hole for a new peek."

Never Wright, Class of '27, is now working for the weather bureau. When asked the weather conditions, he replied, "Fair today, but Tomale."

Pill Pusher, Class of '35, has just graduated from Charleston Medical school. When asked conditions in the medical world, he replied, "Things are simply abdominal."

I. Graft, Class of '08, has announced that his hat is in the ring for the forthcoming senatorial elections. When asked on what platform he would base his campaign, he replied, "What America needs is a good five cent nickel."

Author Williams, class of '40, has been appointed sports editor of the Lexington Dispatch. He came into the limelight a few weeks ago when he discovered that baseball was first mentioned in the bible when Rebecca went to the well with a pitcher.

Ima Flatfoot, class of '19, is now a sergeant on the police force. He was recently decorated for the best radio program on the radio patrol. It was he who sent out the call, "Calling all cars! May West standing on corner with hat on. That is all!"

G. R. Raffle, Class '35, is now associated with Ringling's circus. When asked if the circus would come to Clemson, Raffle replied, "Unfortunately no, we fed the elephants coffee, and they ate the grounds."

I lkkathe Boots, graduate of the electrical engineering class of 1916, has recently changed his address from the Atlanta federal institute, to the Federal pen, Alcatraz, where he will take a course in applied electricity. Boots is using the pen name 23096897639-3x while at Alcatraz. Ex-classmates say that they doubt that he will ever survive his current electricity experiment.

The Class of '41 will construct a monument to "rip" and "Catsup." P. C. Cothran, class president announced today. A definite location has not been decided. The contract has been let to the Davis & Ginn Construction Company.

H. B. Malone '35 has been transferred from Ciba Company's New York offices to the Charlotte office.
